

Agenda

Gloucestershire Green Skills

CONFERENCE 2026

*Please note may be subject to change

Time	Wednesday 8 th July 2026 - Hosted by Bean Beanland
9:00am	Registration and Networking (Refreshments)
09:30am	Welcome: Cllr Linda Cohen - Gloucestershire County Council Cabinet Member for Employment and Skills Professor Katerina Kantartzis - Deputy Head of School of Education, Health and Science - University of Gloucestershire
09:45am	Introducing the City Campus: A retrofit case study: University of Gloucestershire & ADP Architects
10:00am	Keynote Speaker: The UK's Clean Energy Superpower Mission and Gloucestershire's Role: Skills England - Dr Tanya Lawes - Head of Clean Energy, Agriculture, Environment & Animal Care, and Protective Services at Skills England
10:30am	Official Launch: The Gloucestershire Green Skills Strategy (2026 – 2030) - Cllr Linda Cohen - Gloucestershire County Council Cabinet Member for Employment and Skills
10:45am	Break (Refreshments)
11:00am	Keynote Speaker: The Green Skills challenges and opportunities facing Gloucestershire - Professor Matt Reed - Head of Research (Strategy and Environment) - University of Gloucestershire
11:30am	Panel Discussion: The "Green Skills Faculty" - Creating a Collaborative Ecosystem - representatives from the Faculty partners
12:15pm	Keynote Speaker: Dr Rachel J. Wilde - University College London - Associate Professor Education, Practice and Society
12:45pm	Lunch
1:30pm - 3:15pm	Two 45-minute breakout sessions: For each session choose one from the following: Clean Energy, Retrofit, Nature Recovery & Biodiversity, Agri-Tech or Regenerative Farming
3:15pm	Break (Refreshments)
3.30pm	Closing Session: Next Steps
4:00pm	Close

Many thanks to our speakers, panellists, breakout hosts and exhibitors for supporting the Green Skills Conference 2026

Gloucestershire
COUNTY COUNCIL